OPEN HOUSE AT LIBRARY

The Mattapoisett Library will have open house Friday, December 23rd from 3 to 5 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 in the evening. Carol singing on the steps will be held at 7 P. M. The library will be closed Saturday evening, Christmas Eve.

One of the greatest pleasures that we all enjoy in Mattapoisett is the privilege of reading books from the Public Library. There is no greater source of pleasure for so many people. We wish Miss Fox, Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Taylor a very Merry Christmas, with our thanks for their work, and may their New Year be as happy as they have helped to make our past years.

CHRISTMAS PARTY OF MISSIONARY GROUP

The annual Christmas Party of the Long Plain Baptist Church Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Clara Weigel on Monday evening and was well attended.

The Christmas Story from the Bible was read by Clara Hathaway and the poem, "The Gift", was read by Betty Bettencourt who also played several selections on her accordion. Games were played and prizes awarded to Margaret Cameron, Lorraine Tripp, Ruth Decker and Ruth Barksdale. Secret Pal gifts were distributed and their identities revealed. The evening was brought to a happy close by the serving of refreshments.

It was announced that Christmas gifts purchased or made by members of the group had been mailed to missionary families and also to a Navajo Indian girl in Arizona who is in the Baptist Home there.

SOME THOUGHTS OF MINE
Christmas
by Murray R. Tuttle

Christmas again is drawing near
Reminding once more those of us here
Of the birth of the Savior, in a stable born
In the image of man in height and form.

He came to love and save mankind
That all through Him might stronger bind
The ties of Blessings from God above
And in that Blessing we'd learn to love.

For the love of Christ in this world of woe
Gives strength to battle our worldly foe
Who spends His life us to destroy
And make of us the devil's toy.

He traveled far and He traveled near
That all mankind might His teachings hear
He had no thought of self alone
But wanted us all to share His home.

He helped all those who asked His aid,
Even those wherein were laid
The germs of evil, sin and shame,
And healed the sick, the blind and lame.

Once more we come to the day of greetings and family gatherings, of joy and peace and good will.

It is the Season when Edwin L. Morse Company especially wants to pause and say, "Thanks" to you, for our pleasant association during this past year.

Christmas is children's day—the day when their dreams come true. It is a day for adults too—the day when man's faith in mankind is renewed.

Refreshed and encouraged by the experience of another Christmas, we go forward into the New Year with a feeling of good will and a wish for peace and prosperity for all, and most especially for you.

The Blessings of Christ on this Christmas day.
May the New Year fill your hearts with song
That will keep you happy the whole year long.

ATTENDED JA MEETING

Last Wednesday some of the Juvenile Grange members of Mattapoisett attended a meeting of the Junior Achievement in New Bedford. We saw many companies in their work of making things. Candles, jewelry, leathercraft, aprons, metalcraft and printing were a few of the many projects. They gave us a very good tour.

In the absence of our Juvenile Matron, Mrs. Barbara Heuberger, who was ill, our assistant, Mrs. Ricketson, accompanied the group. Attending were Mr. Ricketson, Ann and James DeCosta, John and Albert Sylvia, John Dexter,

Jose Carvalho prop. HAPPIEST CHRISTMAS

FROM THE BALDWIN JOURNAL
Saturday, August 3rd, 1844

At 6 o'clock A. M. there is 4 sail in sight. One appears to be a large English East Indiaman bound home. The others are a standing the same way that we are. At 4 o'clock we exchange signals with a large English barke. She showed the Holly Head signals. At 6 we took a porpoise which will make us some fresh. It was not a large one being about 5 feet long and weighing perhaps a little over one hundred pounds. Their liver, lights and brains make a verry good dish. Their flesh is darker than beefe and it relishes verry well. This 24 hours end with light winds attended with squalls of rain. Latitude 10 40' North.

Sunday, August 4th - This day begins with squally weather and rain. There is now and has been for the last three or four days a verry heavy swell from the south. The weather continues squally at the end of this day.

Monday, August 5th - This day continues squally as usual attended with rain and wind. We take in the fore and mizzen top gallant sail and flying jib.

Tuesday, August 6th - This day begins with a settled breeze from S S W. We carry only our main topgallant sail above our topsails. Our ship heels too much in consequence of a want of ballast in our lower hold. We have steady strong breeze to the end of this day. Latitude 7 35' North.

August 7th - This day begins with squalls again, rainy and thick weather. At daylight we saw a large brig about 4 miles to leeward a standing to the Northward and westward under her topsails and courses. The sea is ahead and verry rough. We are now between the N E and S E trade winds and surely the weather is more fickle than the smiles of a Coquett. Latitude 5 35' North Longitude 15 29' W.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH NEWLY DECORATED

Mattapoisett Congregational Church has completed interior decoration in time for Christmas. The color scheme is soft gray-green, and the effect is carried out by increasing the depth of color in back of the pulpit. The interior gives a pleasing dignified, restful charm.

ST. ANTHONY'S RECTORY CHRISTMAS DISPLAY

The rectory of St. Anthony's Church is beautifully illuminated. Much thought and many hours of labor are exemplified with darol singers, a manger scene, church scene.
